Class of 2005

2005 Graduation

The Senior Class of 2005 waits patiently for the opportunity to walk across stage and accept their hard-earned diplomas.

Senior trombone players Dylan Sova and Matt Sous play during their last performance as a member of the Freeland High School Symphony Band. Senior band members had a great last year. To top off a great year, the band earned First Division ratings at District and State Band Festival. Also highlighting the year were performances at McBrite Manor and Millet Learning Center.

Sarah Kragen-brink accepts her diploma during the May 26, 2005 Commencement ceremony.

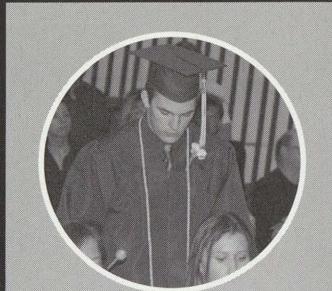

Rachel Yancer, Candis Graham, and Andrew Rapin share a moment before the big event.

With the help of a teacher, Matt Sous gets all the pieces of his graduation gown in order.

Alex Periard concentrates during his last performance with the Freeland High School Symphony Band.

Jared Daughenbaugh, Josh Griffin, Carl Allen, and Nate Deming pose for a picture as they wait for the ceremony to begin.

We met as strangers, grew as classmates, and leave as friends.

Courtney Sanders walks down the aisle to where the seats are waiting for the graduates.

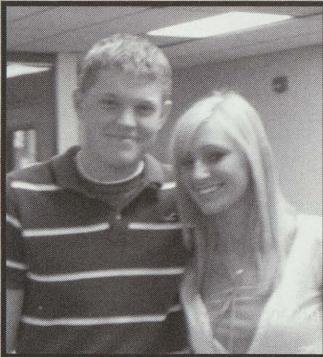

The Class of 2005 tosses their caps in the air in celebration of their accomplishments.

Comments From Executive Council

"Woo I love the P.o.P.e!"

Erin Flattery ~Senior

"Positive Peers is an awesome opportunity to be a part of something grand. I'm glad to be on executive council."

Laure Coman ~Sophomore

"I'm down with the P.o.P.e."

Cameron Foley ~Junior

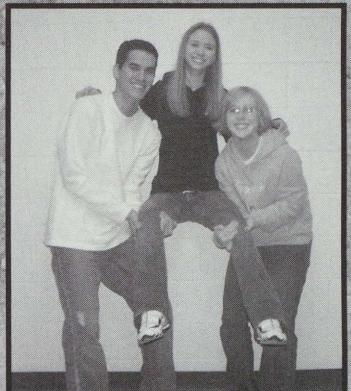

This year the Positive Peers were in full swing helping charities and encouraging students to stay drug and alcohol free. During the fall students raised money through the "Kiss The Pig" competition, where Miss Economou cost, for the Florida hurricane relief. Students also had a canned good drive competition for those in need in the Freeland Community. Prevention classes and a Halloween treasure hunt also took place in the fall.

In the spring students drank tropical drinks and were reminded to have a safe and sober spring break. The peers ended the year with a Prom Promise assembly, a great speaker, and many pledges to stay sober.

About your local community college

Myth No. 6

Delta College is cheap, so it can't be any good. You get what you pay for.

We prefer to say we are affordable. Not cheap. Cheap is the toy you talked your mom and dad into buying at the circus. You know the one. The lighted laser wand of energy. Which broke before you reached the parking ramp. In Delta's case you don't always pay for what you get. Delta College is supported with money from three main sources: the state of Michigan, the local property taxes, and your tuition. The last one is the smallest. If you paid the full cost of what this quality education is worth, you'd be paying a lot more each year. Would that make you feel better?
